HEALTHCARE UK

Adeline Recruits Ltd provides healthcare recruitment solutions to meet the specific needs of nurses, doctors, nurse associates, healthcare assistants, support workers, and other healthcare workers throughout the UK and overseas, working in NHS hospitals, residential nursing homes and supporting living services.

We provide a more focused and dynamic recruitment solution, tailored to the unique needs of our candidates. Our team is experienced in recruitment and understands the specific needs and demands of the healthcare industry.

At Adeline Recruits, we are well known for our reliable solutions and are fast-becoming one of the most recognised permanent and temporary recruitment agencies, having filled a number of positions in our local area of Farnham in Surrey, as well as throughout the UK.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Adeline Recruits does not simply see candidates and employers as numbers or statistics – we look after our applicants by gaining a thorough understanding of their needs and goals. This enables us to provide a smooth and effortless adaptation process for our candidates.

ACCREDITATION

NHS Code of Practice: we are an NHS Code of Practice-approved recruitment agency.

CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

We ensure that our healthcare workers are happy and well cared for. We are on hand to provide expert advice and support whenever our clients need it.

COLLABORATION

We work with employers to ensure that they have the communication tools to allow their employees to express themselves and raise concerns when necessary.

SUPPORT

We appreciate that it can be difficult for healthcare workers from overseas to adapt to UK environments, which is why we provide support services 7-days a week, both throughout the application process and beyond.

SOLUTIONS

Finding the right candidate for a position in your establishment can be a time-consuming and tricky process. You will most likely not have the time or resources to read multiple CVs, research individual candidates and make tough screening decisions. Why not let our team of employment experts take care of all this quickly and efficiently?

At Adeline Recruits, we offer employers our professional services to assist you in finding the very best candidates to join your workforce. We vet our job-seekers thoroughly, compiling their relevant experience, their qualifications, and their suitability for your open position and company, so you only receive the best people for the job. Candidates who will become fantastic assets to your company and who genuinely care about the work that they do and the care they provide.

Our experienced recruitment team will take all your requirements and preferences into account throughout the entire process, meaning we will only send the very best candidates your way, making your final hiring decision much simpler.

FLEXIBLE

Adeline Recruits offers flexible services and can help employers fill both permanent and temporary healthcare positions.

COST-EFFECTIVE

We offer our specialist services for an extremely competitive finder's fee, which is flexible.

CONVENIENCE

Our team is based in Farnham, Surrey, but we provide recruitment services for employers throughout the UK.

CONTRIBUTIONS

As a company, we have also contributed to the development of healthcare reports in the UK Parliament.
